

HOW TO ACE YOUR AUDITION

ABOUT THIS EVENT

The Capital District Council for Young Musicians (CDCYM) is pleased to present a workshop by Dr. Young Kim, Associate Professor and Coordinator of Piano program of the College of St. Rose. HOW TO ACE YOUR AUDITION will focus on piano auditions such as NYSSMA, NYSMTA Evaluations, as well as college entrance auditions. It will be beneficial for students who prepare for any piano competition, adjudication, or performance.

The workshop will begin with a presentation about auditioning. The topics include how to select your repertoire and build a well-balanced program, how to effectively practice and prepare pieces, practical strategies for improving scales and sight-reading skills, and how to present yourself best in front of a jury panel. Following the presentation will be a set of mock auditions where students may perform a piece of their choice from memory and receive feedback from Dr. Kim. There will be a separate portion of mock auditions focusing on scales and sight-reading.

Pianist Young Kim is Associate Professor and Coordinator of Piano program at The College of Saint Rose in Albany, NY. A Steinway Artist, Kim has performed internationally as a soloist in recitals and with orchestras, in addition to appearing numerous times as a chamber musician. Dr. Kim has been frequently invited to present lectures, recitals, workshops, and master classes in numerous colleges and universities in South Korea, Thailand, as well as in the US. She holds a Doctor of Musical Arts from the University of Minnesota, an Artist Diploma from Yale University, a Master of Music from The Juilliard School, and her Bachelor of Music from Seoul National University.
